In mid-March, Mohegan Sun at Pocono Downs received approval from the state Gaming Control Board to add table games such as poker, blackjack, and craps, a feature that gamblers could see as early as June or July. Keynote speaker Bobby Soper from Mohegan Sun at Pocono Downs will explain the coming expansion to the casino, employment outlook, and the financial impact for NEPA.

Keynote Speaker:

Prior to his current position as President and CEO of Mohegan Sun at Pocono Downs, a harness racetrack, casino, and entertainment complex in Plains, PA, Robert ("Bobby") J. Soper served for four years as Senior Vice President at Mohegan Sun in Uncasville, Connecticut, where he managed various divisions within the company. Bobby has also acted as the Chief Legal Officer for the company and as Senior Attorney for the Mohegan Tribe.

An involved community member, Bobby has served on the Board of Directors of the Wilkes-Barre Chamber of Commerce, Board of Directors and Treasurer of the Northeast Regional Cancer Institute, Board of Directors and Treasurer of United Way of Wyoming Valley and numerous other community organizations.

Bobby graduated magna cum laude with a BBA in Economics from the University of Georgia and also graduated with honors with a Juris Doctorate from the University of Georgia School of Law. He also serves on the Editorial Board of the Georgia Law Review.

Bobby was born in Atlanta, Georgia and relocated to Southeastern Connecticut with his wife, Jackie, in 1997 before moving to Northeastern Pennsylvania in 2005.

Question and answer period immediately following the session.
