

Defender of the Commonwealth

The Penn State Wilkes-Barre Student Government Association initiated this award this year to honor one of their own.

As SGA president, Mark Calore has spent countless hours sitting on various committees, attending Council of Commonwealth Student Government meetings, and seeking out ways to improve his own campus as well as the other Commonwealth Campuses of Penn State University.