

The Martin U. Dougherty Emerging Leader Award

Established by Florence C. Dougherty in memory of her late husband, the Martin U. Dougherty Emerging Leader Award honors a student from the Penn State Wilkes-Barre campus who has demonstrated the qualities of leadership, service, scholarship, citizenship and character through involvement in campus and/or community activities that have positively influenced fellow students and have contributed to the prestige and well-being of Penn State Wilkes-Barre, and hence, to the reputation of the University as a whole.
